CASE NUMBER: 4:18-cr-00054-02

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

Five (5) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: CAMERON A. BRYANT
CASE NUMBER: 4:18-cr-00054-02STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant must participate, under the guidance and supervision of the probation office, in a substance abuse treatment program which may include drug and alcohol testing, outpatient counseling, and residential treatment. Further, he must abstain from the use of alcohol throughout the course of treatment. He shall pay for the cost of treatment at the rate of $10 per session, with the total cost not to exceed $40 per month, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation office. If he is financially unable to pay for the cost of treatment, the co-pay requirement will be waived.

The defendant must participate, under the guidance and supervision of the probation office, in a mental health treatment program. He shall pay for the cost of treatment at the rate of $10 per session, with the total cost not to exceed $40 per month, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation office. If he is financially unable to pay for the cost of treatment, the co-pay requirement will be waived.

The defendant must disclose his substance abuse history to prescribing physicians and allow the probation office to verify disclosure due to his history of fentanyl abuse.

FINAL ORDER OF FORFEITURE

Before the Court is the United States motion for final order of forfeiture (Dkt. No. 197). On August 3, 2021, this Court entered a preliminary order of forfeiture (Dkt. No. 180), ordering defendant Cameron A. Bryant to forfeit his interest in $29,619.00 in United States Currency seized from 3 Treasure Hill Road (“property subject to forfeiture”).

The United States published notice of this forfeiture and the United States’ intent to dispose of the property in accordance with the law as specified in the preliminary order. See Advertisement Certification (Dkt. No. 197-1). The United States posted its notice on the forfeiture website, internet address of www.forfeiture.gov for 30 consecutive days beginning on August 6, 2021, and ending on September 4, 2021. Further, the United States also made reasonable efforts to identify and give direct notice of this forfeiture to all persons who reasonably appear to have standing to contest this forfeiture in an ancillary proceeding. No one has filed a claim to the property subject to forfeiture, and the time for filing claims has expired.

Now the United States petitions the Court to enter a final order of forfeiture, which will vest all right, title, and interest in the United States. The United States also asks this Court to authorize the United States to dispose of the property according to law.

The property subject to forfeiture is forfeited. The United States now has all right, title, and interest in the property. Any prior claims in and against the property subject to forfeiture are extinguished and declared void. The property shall be turned over to the United States and disposed of according to law. The Court shall retain jurisdiction in this case for the purpose of enforcing this Order.

It is so ordered this 28th day of February 2022.
